

Your starting point is the TKTS booth

The West End can get very busy at times, so be sure to stay with your group and take care when crossing the roads.

1. Find the playwright in Leicester Square. What is their name?

W _____ S _____

Hint: Look in the centre of the gardens.

2. Next you'll need to find a rather large book. Head past Leicester Square station and have a look on Cranbourn Street near the Arts Theatre. Can you name the lady in the book?

A _____ C _____

Hint: Read what's on the book. It will help you with the next question!

Hint: She was an English crime novelist, short story writer and playwright.

3. The above author wrote the world's longest running play which opened at St. Martin's Theatre in 1974. Head up Upper St. Martin's Lane to find this next venue on West Street.

How many torches are on this theatre? __

Hint: Be sure to walk all the way around the building!

4. Follow Shelton, Endell and Bow streets towards the Covent Garden Piazza. Can you find the ballerina twirling in the air?

Which venue is the ballerina on?

T _ _ R _ _ _ O _ _ _ H _ _ _

Hint: Walk along Russell Street and keep looking up!

Did you know? The sculpture, entitled Globe Head Ballerina was based upon a photograph of Dame Margot Fonteyn de Arias - one of the greatest classical ballet dancers.

5. Head to the Lyceum Theatre at the end of Bow Street and seek out three famous names on the building.

T _ _ _ _ , S _ _ _ _ and I _ _ _ _

Hint: Try looking around the back!

- 6a. Now, walk along the Strand towards Trafalgar Square. You're looking for a famous head, where Adelaide Street and Duncannon Street meet.

What theatres do you see along the way?

The S _ _ _ _ , The V _ _ _ _ _ and The A _ _ _ _ _

Did you know? The Strand was once the hub of Nightlife and Theatre in Victorian times!

- 6b. Now you've reached the famous head, can you name who it belongs to?

O _ _ _ _ W _ _ _ _

Did you know? The quote on the memorial is taken from the play, Lady Windermere's Fan.

7. On your final stop you will meet the Henry Irving statue on Irving Street.

What year was Henry Irving born? _ _ _ _

Hint: He stands past the National Portrait Gallery and opposite the Garrick Theatre.

Did you know? Sir Henry Irving was an English stage actor in the Victorian era.

The TKTS booth should be in sight.
Can you see it?

WELL DONE!