About this guide

Welcome to the London Theatre Guide For Schools!

This guide covers a wide variety of current and upcoming productions across London, from top musicals to challenging plays to delightful children's shows. We also have a handy map of theatreland (p7) for your reference. Each listing covers:

- Venue location and transport links
- Show description, running times and key subject links
- Age suitability and content warnings
- School rates for tickets
- Contact details for bookings and access bookings
- Other educational resources and opportunities

This guide is published on a monthly basis to ensure show listing information remains correct and up-to-date.

For more information about planning your trip, transportation information, theatre etiquette, student behaviour and other top tips to ensure your time in theatreland goes smoothly, visit OfficialLondonTheatre.com/SchoolsTheatreTrips.

Happy theatregoing!

Polka Theatre, The Broadway
Wimbledon, South Wimbledon

Age suitability: 3-7

Length: 55m, no interval

Booking from: 26 Feb 2025 | Booking until: 27 Mar 2025

It's time to tell the real story of The Pea and the Princess, one which no one has ever heard before.

Leap into a high velocity adventure, into the world of a Ninja Princess on a mega-mission, a practical Prince concocting the best inventions, a Queen with a slightly worrying crown obsession, and a very green baddy indeed.

Featuring super catchy songs, some familiar fairytale faces and a brand-new twist-in-the-tale, this a story that you definitely wouldn't want to sleep on!

Robin Hood And The Christmas Heist

Rose Theatre, High Street
🚶🏻🚶🏻 Kingston

Age suitability: 5+

Length: 2h, inc. interval

Booking from: 30 Nov 2024 | Booking until: 5 Jan 2025

As winter's first snow falls, there's little Christmas cheer in Sherwood. Cupboards are bare, the nights are cold, and the cruel Sheriff of Nottingham squeezes his citizens for every penny they're worth. But deep in the forest, in the heart of the Major Oak, legendary outlaw Robin Hood plots an audacious scheme to bring some festive joy to all.

This new festive adventure is imagined by Olivier Award winner Chris Bush (Standing At The Sky's Edge, Fantastically Great Women Who Changed The World) and directed by UK Theatre Award winner Elin Schofield (Rock, Paper Scissors).

Sisters 360

Polka Theatre, The Broadway
Wimbledon, South Wimbledon

Age suitability: 8-12 Length: 1h, no interval

Booking from: 26 Mar 2025 | Booking until: 24 Apr 2025

Fatima and Salima are the closest step-sisters in Bradford and they will win the Tiny is Mighty skateboarding competition.

They've practised every trick in the book, and look (almost) as good as Sky Brown, just check out their YouTube Channel. Except their parents have started whispering in the kitchen about living apart ... only seeing each other in school holidays. How will they perfect their routine if their whole lives are about to turn 360 too?

Inspired by real-life sisters and their Olympic hero.

Written by Asif Khan.

Death Of England: The Plays

@sohoplace, Soho Place
Tottenham Court Road, Leicester Square

Age suitability: 14+

Length: See website

Booking until: 28 Sep 2024

These three interconnected plays are, by turns, exhilarating, profoundly moving, funny but furious, and deeply theatrical. Watch one as a standalone experience or discover the connections between two or three of the plays as Michael, Delroy, Denise and Carly navigate the joys and challenges of what it means to be British in 2024.

Starring Paapa Essiedu (I May Destroy You, Gangs Of London), Thomas Coombes (Baby Reindeer), Erin Doherty (The Crown) and Sharon Duncan-Brewster (Dune) and directed by Clint Dyer, Death Of England is set to be the theatrical event of the year.

Advisory content: Strobe/flashing lights, strong language and adult themes, including references to slavery, racism, sexual abuse, drug and alcohol abuse.

Lyric Hammersmith Theatre, King Street
🚶 Hammersmith

Age suitability: 14+

Length: 2h30

Booking from: 28 Feb 2025 | Booking until: 29 Mar 2025

A struggling and divided nation, tearing itself apart. So, when the Macbeths see their chance at the crown, why shouldn't they take it? But things don't go according to plan.

A visceral and contemporary new production that speaks to a world we find ourselves living in now, asking why has Macbeth haunted our fears and nightmares for centuries, and what lesson this cautionary tale is still urgently trying to communicate to us?

Advisory content: Strobe lighting, other strong lighting effects, loud noises. Content guidance: Murder, infanticide, inference of child loss, stage blood, and violence against women.

Never Let Me Go

Rose Theatre, High Street
Kingston

Age suitability: 12+

Length: TBC

Booking from: 20 Sep 2024 | Booking until: 12 Oct 2024

Kazuo Ishiguro's international best-selling novel arrives on stage in this world premiere of Suzanne Heathcote's gripping new adaptation.

What if you discovered your whole reason for being was not about your life but about making someone else's possible? Your dreams, your desires, your love for another, all of them irrelevant in a world that values only what you give, without question or condition, to someone you've never met and will never know.

Memory and reality collide in this stunning new staging that challenges us to think about what it means to be human.

Richard II

Bridge Theatre, Potters Fields Park
🚶 London Bridge, 🚶 Tower Hill

Age suitability: 12+

Length: TBC

Booking from: 10 Feb 2025 | Booking until: 10 May 2025

Richard II is charismatic, eloquent and loved by his friends. And a disastrous King.

Echoing down the centuries is the perennial problem: how to deal with a ruler who has a rock solid right to rule but is set on wrecking the country he leads.

Shakespeare's subtle, ambiguous and beautiful play finds feudal England on the cusp of modernity, as a divinely sanctioned monarch is confronted by the hard-headed pragmatism of real authority.

Jonathan Bailey dons the crown in this production directed by Nicholas Hytner, with set and costume by Bob Crowley.

Why Am I So Single?

Garrick Theatre, Charing Cross Road
Leicester Square

Age suitability: 14+

Length: 2h30, inc. interval

Booking until: 13 Feb 2025

GET READY FOR THE NEXT MUSICAL FROM THE WRITERS OF SIX...

Ever asked yourself how you could possibly be single when you're soooo cool, interesting, and fun?!?! (dw neither have we). That's the situation faced by two best pals in WHY AM I SO SINGLE? Join them as they drink/eat/cry/laugh through their attempt to answer the impossible question of why they are so single?!

From the writers of SIX, Toby Marlow and Lucy Moss, comes a brand-new British musical about dates, mates, and celebrating love in all its forms.

Advisory content: Strong language, scenes featuring discrimination (transphobia and homophobia), bereavement/grief, traumatic experiences.
